One thing that the HBA wants to ensure every volunteer knows how to do is translate their experiential learning into real-life value. If you are just exploring what kind of role might be right for you, here are some examples of how HBA volunteer roles translate to career goals. Whether it be adding your volunteering to your resume, communicating the benefits to your manager or in an interview, being able to articulate the value derived from your volunteering is key!

Career Goal	HBA Volunteer Roles
Senior Executive	→ Chair/Vice or Deputy Chair, President/Vice President
CFO/Finance	→ Secretary/Treasurer
HR/Talent	→ Member Engagement/Retention; Volunteer Recruitment
Marketing/PR	→ Marketing and Communications; Advocacy
Research	→ Market Research
Product Management	→ Member Value Offerings; Education and Events
Sales	→ Corporate Relations; Member Recruitment; Business Development
