How far in advance do I need to submit an event to open for registration?

Per HBA programming and events policy, all events—no matter the size—must be submitted at least 4 weeks in advance to be opened for registration via the HBA website. This ensures an appropriate time for event promotion to ensure a sizeable audience.