

European Leadership Summit

Last Modified on 05/06/2026 11:50 am EDT

The Future Is Human: Steady Leadership in an Unsteady World

In a sector defined by complexity, rapid change, and growing uncertainty, confident and human-centred leadership matters more than ever.

The European Leadership Summit is a high-impact convening that brings together healthcare and life sciences leaders from across Europe to strengthen judgement, exchange insight, and turn strategy into action.

Join peers shaping what comes next — and leave ready to deliver lasting impact with clarity and confidence.

Who Should Attend

The European Leadership Summit is designed for leaders across healthcare and life sciences who are navigating complexity, growth, and change, including:

- Senior executives and functional leaders
- Leaders with cross-market or regional responsibility
- Emerging leaders expanding their strategic influence
- Professionals shaping policy, innovation, and organisational performance

If you are making decisions with long-term impact — for your organisation, your teams, or the broader health ecosystem — this Summit is designed for you.
